

one accord in partnership with others provides these breaks as a gift to couples who lead churches. (We ask for a £20 registration fee but nothing beyond that.) Recognising the strains that your ministry can impose on family life by its constant demands, we want you both to benefit from this time away together by receiving for a change.

This is a rare opportunity to get away from the pressures. We invite you to take a break for two days, structured to give you maximum privacy and time to appreciate each other. Topics are discussed together as husband and wife in private. No sharing in a group setting is expected.

..time together to talk without interruptions...

About one accord

...founded in 1974 under our former title of Marriage Review, one accord is an interdenominational team wanting to help churches catch the vision for establishing life-long support strategies for marriages and personal relationships.

Time Out for Marriage

The teaching is biblical, with an emphasis on the active work of the Holy Spirit and the Cross. The one accord team is pleased to be able to offer this Time Out to couples with responsibility for leadership.

Sessions are led by couples from the one accord team who are experienced in Christian leadership and marriage ministry.

Grateful thanks to Chris & Claire Grimshaw, the owners of the Shippon, for their generosity in providing the Totnes accommodation as a free gift.

...and to the Bowerman Charitable Trust for use of The Pines at a nominal cost

Catering hosts at both venues are one accord volunteers.
